SCOTT'S BAR

Scotts Bar first opened its doors in 1930; it is located to the front of this historic building; the unique atmosphere of this award-winning bar offers both locals and guests an experience not to be forgotten. The bar is decorated to the highest standards in traditional style with a contemporary twist, comfort and relaxation foremost in mind.

Bar Food is served daily. Menu choices vary from light snack options such as soup or sandwiches, to more substantial alternatives such as salads and meat & seafood specialties. The changing daily specials expand the choices on offer.

Scotts Bar & Courtyard is a casual dining alternative to The Courtyard Restaurant and is open for morning coffee & scones, lunch, an evening meal or simply a drink.

THE COURTYARD RESTAURANT

The Head Chefs menu combines new style cuisine with many of the traditional Irish favourites, the perfect choice for Killarney Hotel Restaurants. An extensive wine list ensures that your meal will be perfectly complemented every time.

Attention to detail with attentive and friendly service is the essence of a dining experience in the Courtyard Restaurant.

‘Where only the Finest Local Ingredients are used by our Chefs.’

ACCOMMODATION

Scotts bedrooms are both airy & comfortable rooms perfect for individuals, couples, families and groups. All rooms are furnished to the highest standards. Choose from a choice of single, double, twin, triple, family and suite bedrooms for your relaxing leisure or business stay with us.

SPACIOUS APARTMENTS

These town centre apartments are located overlooking The Courtyard of Scotts Street.

Each apartment consists of two bedrooms, both of which can sleep 2 people per bedroom in twin beds. The sofa bed in the sitting area converts to a fifth bed for one adult or two small children. They have an open plan sitting, dining and kitchen area while overlooking the lively courtyard area where music is played nightly over the summer months.

These Killarney self-catering apartments for visitors for whom extra space, comfort and privacy are a must. An added bonus is that you can enjoy full use of the hotel while staying in Scotts self-catering apartments.
